World environment day, celebrated on 5th June every year is the flagship program of United Nations created to bring about public awareness on several environmental issues of that time, like, such as marine pollution, human overpopulation, global warming, sustainable consumption and wildlife crime. Nearly 143 countries celebrate it every year. This year the theme for World environment day is Reimagine. Recreate. Restore. With this the UN seeks to focus the attention of investors, businesses, governments and communities on the increasingly urgent need to restore the Earth's ecosystems. Let's join hands to conserve, manage and develop our ecosystems in a sustainable way.
