

4.3.3 facility for E content

Report on E Content development facility

Our college has e content facility aims at developing high quality e content, as well as expertise for generating such content over long term.

E content serves the purpose in its various forms such as web based learning, computer based learning, mobile based learning, virtual class rooms and digital collaboration.

The college has digital auditorium, digital podium. Camera, tripod, internet facility, sound setting equipment's. conducting classes through google meet, enhanced maximum number of students to login for the same, created Mail. Ids for the students from all the streams to log in to online classes, broadband connections in each classes for running online classes, wifi connections in the campus, separate language lab is available. E books also available and students can access ate any time with the help of their ID. Laptops issued to each departments.

Internet facility in lab

Camera

Tripod

Digital sound system in auditorium

